Hello Residents Families and Friends.

Wishing you a restful and well-deserved Labor Day weekend as we celebrate the end of summer. May your new season be filled with crisp air, cozy moments and fresh starts. Let us also observe and remember to honor the 2001 victims on September 11.

May September be filled with music, laughter, and plenty of moments to appreciate.

Warm Wishes,

FLH Staff,

We would like to invite our resident's guardians and families every first Wednesday of the month at 1:30pm in Activity Room for Residents and Family Council. Snacks will be served after the meeting.

Relatable Aging Humor:
I am not getting older. I am marinating.

At my age, the only pole dancing I do is holding onto the safety bar in the bathtub.

These days, about half the stuff in my shopping cart says "For fast relief."

Old age is not so bad when you Consider the alternative.

Laughing Matters

An elderly man went to the doctor to be fitted for new hearing aids. A month later, he returned for a checkup. The doctor said, "Your hearing is perfect.

Is your family pleased?" The man replied, "Oh, I haven't told them yet. I just sit around and listen to them talk. I've changed my will five times already!

A guy is about to undergo surgery. Just as the anesthesia is about to be administered, he hears the surgeon speaking, "Don't worry Bill. This is just a routine operation. There's absolutely nothing to worry about."

The guy looks over and says, "Thanks, but my name isn't Bill"

"The surgeon says, "I know, I'am Bill."

A murderer was secured to the electric chair, about to be executed. The chaplain approached him and asked, "Do you have any last requests?" "Yes," replied the murderer. "Would you hold my hand?"

An old man and a 20 year old are paired together at a golf tournament. They're playing a long par 5 that dog legs around some tall trees.

As the 20 year old sets up his tee shot to hit onto the fairway the old man notes "when I was your age we used to hit over the trees – not around to the side."

So the 20 year old readjusts and tries to hit over the trees – but can't clear them and loses his ball. He tries again and loses that one too.

Then the old man says "of course, when I was your age, the trees were only 6 foot tall."

A 75 year old walks into a bar with a parrot on his shoulder. The barman asks: "hey, where did you get him?" The parrot answers: "at a Nursing Home, they're all over the place there!"
